ITEMS TELEGRAPHED FROM WASHINGTON. Washington, Nov. 26.—The Government to-day received a dispatch from Minister Clay, stating that he had, pursuant to instructions, demanded his passports, and was on his way home from Peru. Shortly after this information came to the Executive, the Peruvian Minister to the United States was promptly fur-nished with his passport, and thus all diplo-matic intercourse between the two countries is terminated. The amount of unadjusted claims against Peru on account of the seizure and confiscation of the vessels Georgiana and Lizzie Thompson is $150,000.

Mr. Clay has been our Minister to Peru for mearly fourteen years.

No official information has been received of the reported resignation of Judge Taney.

Ex Senator Chesnut writes here from the mountain districts of South Carolina, where, he says, he is stumping for secession, and adds:

"The Black Republicans will have a chance to Serce South Carolina, for out we are going. Mr. Clay, of Alabama, is not expected here next winter, on account of serious illness, if for no other reason. It is not now supposed that more than four Southern Senators will absent themselves from their seats. The orders from the South upon New York for merchandise are so much reduced from the usual demand, that a very large portion of im-

The report of the death of the Hon. Charles H. Larrabee, member of Congress from Wis-consin, mentioned in our paper of yesterday, is contradicted by later advices.

If the election of Mr. Lincoln promised no benefit to the country, our late Bell-Everett opponents should be grateful to us for the opportunity given to them of proving their loyalty to the "Union and the Constitution," and their desire for the "Enforcement of the Laws." We hope, however, their patriotism will not be put to the severest test.

It is somewhat amusing to notice the newspaper cards of various office-holders in this city and in the Southern States, giving notice of an intention to resign on the 4th of March. That is right, gentlemen; don't be turned out; die nobly, when you find that death is certain. But one of these documents, emanating from South Carolina officials, bears the signature of a gentleman from that State, who does not, and never did, hold an office under the Admin istration. Oh, fie, Mr. ——! Hold an office snugly under a Black Republican Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, and refuse to hold one under a President of the same political faith? If consistency were the current coin of the country, a certain section of the Union would be hopelessly bankrupt.

A LATE DISCOVERY.

A " Union " man, writing from Baltimore to the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, says:

"Our beloved land is in an awful crisis. The our beloved land is in an awful crisis. The sentiments of Maryland and Virginia are changing to strong Southern ground every day, owing to the unconstitutional laws of so many Northern States. I find scarcely a man now, no matter what his political creed may be, but says those laws must be repealed, or the Union must be dissolved. And any attempt to coerce any Southern States to submiswhile these laws remain unrepealed, will unite the whole South as one man. tions can save the country now. The whole matter is now in the hands of the Republican party themselves, to save or destroy this land and they have not more than thirty days to do it in, if so long."

It strikes us as a little strange, that Southern men never discovered, until now, that these laws are so obnoxious that the Union cannot withstand them for thirty days. We know of no laws, in any of the States, which Southern men object to, that have not been on the statute books of those States during the whole of Mr. Buchanan's Administration, if not longer. If our Southern brethren could submit to them under Mr. Buchanan's Administration, why is it that they become so intolerable now that Mr. Buchanan is about to retire?

If any of these laws are designed to nullify or prevent the fair execution of the fugitive slave act, or any other act of Congress, we have nothing to say in defence of them. It such is their effet, we think they ought never to have been enected, and ought to be modified or repealed. Nevertheless, we do not understand why their repeal, under a Republican Administration, should be made a condition of the continuance of the Union, any more than under a Democratic Administra-

DESTRUCTIVE CONFLAGRATION IN NEW YORK.—Loss Half a Million.—A fire, involving the destruction of property valued in the aggregate at half a million of dollars, broke out in New York about one o'clock on Sunday morning, in the large brown-stone warehouse at the corner of Church street, extending the street of the street, extending the street of the st

A number of fire companies were at the moment passing through Broad-way, on their return from a fire in Front street, and as quickly as possible they got to work.
The intense cold, however, made their operations exceedingly difficult, as the hydrants had frozen, and considerable time elapsed before water could be obtained. Meantime the flames water could be obtained. Meantime the flames had burst out of every window in the upper story of the building on Church street side, and had thence communicated to the adjoining premises on Warren street, from which it extended to the building in the rear, fronting on Murray street, making an area of fire two hundred feet in length by fifty in width, upon which the firemen had to work. In addition to the labor of working to subdue the flames at these buildings, the high wind threw masses of burning cinders and pieces of burning timber upon the roofs of stores in the vicinity, making it necessary for the exercise of great precaution necessary for the exercise of great precaution to prevent the destruction of the buildings which were thus endangered. After ten hours' hard labor, however, the fire was extinguished, it having been confined to the two large ware-bouses already mentioned, of which the walls alone remain standing. There is no doubt whatever that the fire originated from a defect in the heaters connected with the hot-air furnace used for warming the building."

Prospectus of the National Republican.

Believing that the time has arrived when the reat Republican party of the United States ough o be fairly represented in the daily press of the National Metropolis, we have embarked in the enterprise of supplying the citizens of the District of Columbia with a daily publication, under the title of the " NATIONAL REPUBLICAN."

In its political department, this journal will sdvocate and defend the principles of the Repub lican party, and endeavor to disabuse the public mind of groundless prejudices which have been engendered against it, by the false accusations of its enemies. Having the utmost confidence that the administration of Mr. Lincoln will be such as to merit our approbation, we expect to yield it a cordial, but not a servile support. In the great issue that is likely to be made with his administration, by the enemies of the Republican party, the people of Washington and the District of Columbia have more at stake than the people of any other portion of our common country. We believe that to support Mr. Lincoln's administration will be synonymous with maintaining the integrity of the Federal Union, against the machinations of those who would rend it asunder. No one can doubt upon which side of this issue the people of Washington will be found, when they come to realize that it is fairly forced upon them. We feel confident, therefore, that in yielding to the administration of Mr. Lincoln a cordial support, we shall have the sympathy of an immens majority of the people of this District and vicin-

It is not our design, however, to make the National Republican a mere political paper. We intend, that as a medium of general and local news, it shall not be inferior to any other journal published in this city. We shall pay particular attention to questions of local policy, and advocate such reforms as we may deem essential to the prosperity of the city, and to the advancement of the moral and material welfare of its inhabitants.

We deem it unnecessary, however, to multi ply promises, as the paper will immediately make its appearance, and will then speak for itself.

It will be published every afternoon, and delivered to city subscribers at six cents per week. Mail subscribers, $3.50 a year, payable in ad-
